Foreword by Rev’d. Bill Day
Vicar of the Parish of St. Peter – Titchfield from 1998

One of the things that attracted me to Titchfield when contemplating the possibility of being Vicar here was the church and its ancient history. I am not a great historian but, if this is not a contradiction in terms, I have a great sense of history, and often reflect on what the people and the life of the church and its parish must have been like in times past. For me the sense of the continuity that exists in being a part of the moving history and spiritual tide of a place that has a history in excess of 1,300 years is very special. The prayers containing the hopes, dreams, joys, sufferings and agonies of thousands upon thousands of ordinary people have soaked into the very stones of the building.

That is what is so important about the work of the Titchfield History Society in relation to the transcribing of the Parish Registers in this volume and in its predecessor that dates from 1589. The people recorded in these records are ordinary people, just like you and me. Most of us pass through time without leaving much of a trace, save in the hearts and minds of those who love us, but within a generation or two even that too fades away. But each of us is precious in the sight of God and has a place in His heart. That is why the Church has always recorded details of those who have been part of its community, because each one of us does make a difference, small perhaps, to the place and the people where we are born, live and die. This is a record of such people. I hope that when you use it you will find what you are looking for. As you use it you might like to offer a prayer in humble thanks for those who have preceded us in this place and have made it what it is today.

So my thanks to Titchfield History Society, and especially those who did the work of compilation, particularly Keith Hayward on whom most of the weight rested, but also Annie Mitchell and George Watts whose work was also extremely valuable.
Introduction

Soon after the Titchfield History Society was founded in 1977 it was decided to transcribe and publish the Titchfield Parish Registers. These begin in January 1589/90 and are deposited at Hampshire Record Office, where they are now normally available to researchers on microfiche. The earlier books are difficult to use because of the Elizabethan handwriting, because much of the handwriting is very untidy, and because they are unindexed. The first transcribed volume was published in 1998 and is still available from the Society.

The present volume contains the text of the second extant register (Hampshire Record Office ref. 37M73A/PR2) covering events from April 1634 up to June 1678.

At the period of this Register, the New Year began on March 25th. No attempt has been made to convert the dates to modern usage.

Considerable efforts have been made to achieve accuracy. A complete manuscript transcript made by the Editor from microfiche of the original document was word-processed and proof-read against photocopies of the original by two people working independently. Queries having been resolved as far as possible by reference to the original Register, the text was again printed out and a detailed index compiled, which was then rechecked against the text. Any errors which do survive are the Editor's responsibility, and he would be glad to have details of any found.

All information in the Register has been transcribed, the Editor's aim being to present the Clerk's intentions as exactly as possible, subject to certain editorial conventions:

..... denotes illegible matter.
----- under a particular date or heading indicates that no event is registered, or within an entry that some information is missing from the original.
 indicates that an alteration has been made in the original document.

Words editorially supplied are enclosed in brackets().

Any abbreviation is indicated by an apostrophe, it being impossible on modern word processors to reproduce the various original abbreviation symbols. The orthography of the original has otherwise been preserved.

Dates are in various styles of Roman or modern numerals depending on the scribe of the day. Thus the twelfth may appear as xij, xijth, xiij° 12 or 12\textsuperscript{th} or indeed may be spelt in full in a variety of ways.

Although the first Register was filled in 1634, a new book was not obtained until 1636, and entries from April 1634 were copied retrospectively into the back of the new book. For the convenience of researchers that block of entries has been put in its correct chronological place.

Correction to Volume 1:

The text of pages 140 and 141 was inadvertently transposed. Family name index references to page 140 should therefore be construed as page 141 and vice versa.
Acknowledgements

The Society would like to thank all those who have contributed to this book. Mr K. Hayward made the transcript forming the first stage of the work and carried out the initial proof-reading and final checking; Samantha word-processed the text, coping masterfully with the combination of 17th century spelling and the Editor's handwriting; our President, Mr D. G. Watts, once again undertook the difficult and intricate task of indexing, and Mrs B. A. Mitchell proof-read the complete text and checked the index. Thanks are also due to Mr H. Hicks, Mr Watts and Mrs S. Wise who formed the subcommittee which initiated the project; to Miss M. Cash, late County Archivist, who gave us permission to transcribe and provided the photocopies used in the project; to Miss R. Dunhill, late County Archivist, who allowed the Editor the privilege of using the original Register for proof-reading purposes, and to the Titchfield Community Association for making clerical assistance available when it was very badly needed.

Much time and effort has also been expended on later Registers, which it is hoped to publish in due course.

INDEX

The main page index is by surname and initials. If a particular combination of surname and initial occurs more than once on a page the number of instances is given in brackets after the page number. However, two or more references to the same surname and initial on any particular page are not necessarily to the same individual. The widely varied spelling of the period makes for great difficulties in indexing. To avoid over-burdening the index with cross-references, variants of each surname have been grouped together. Cross-references are not provided unless the variants have different initial letters.

Indexes are also provided to the place names, descriptive names (mostly occupations) and to given names where no surname is apparent.
